Week-End Specials and calling Special Attention to Misses' Wearing Apparel

AS SCHOOL begins next week, we want to lay particular stress on the splendid service we offer in the way of outfitting misses and juniors. In our Corset Department will be found a full line of what is needed in "H. & W." waists. In the Hose Section we offer the best school hose to be found in El Paso. In millinery, gloves, neckwear, handkerchiefs and other dress accessories our stocks are unsurpassed. And as to ready-to-wear garments, our present fall stock was selected with special reference to supplying what would be needed by the "school miss." As a Week-End Special, we note a sale of misses' school dresses, also two items in light weight woolen dresses suitable for early fall wear.

Misses' School Dresses at Greatly Reduced Prices

TOMORROW we offer greatly reduced prices on misses' school dresses. These dresses are made of striped and plain wash materials—linen, batiste, gingham, etc. Special mention is made of white Peter Thompson dresses with red or blue sailor collar. The size range is from 12 to 18 years. School begins in a few days, so come tomorrow and take advantage of these big reductions.

CANADIAN TOWN IS MENACED BY SLIDES

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 30.—Advices received by the government officials tell of another landslide at Frank, Alberta, where a few days ago part of Turtle mountain, which rises above the town, slid down and killed 100 persons. No details of the latest slide are yet at hand, but it is stated that people are preparing to leave the town. A commission appointed a year ago to report on conditions at Turtle mountain found that there was imminent danger of another great landslide that might destroy the town.

SAVING FISH FOR DUKE OF CONNAUGHT

Portland, Ore., Aug. 30.—That Canadian trout streams are being conserved by policemen that the duke of Connaught may be insured good sport, is the statement of Claude Hicks, a Portland lawyer and fisherman, who has returned from the Canadian Rockies. Hicks said he had made a two-day trip from Calgary to a famous trout stream. Northwest mounted police ordered them to leave the stream, and the fact that they carried licenses had no effect. Hicks declared. The Duke of Connaught is expected to visit that district in September.

ENGLAND AND GERMANY NOW IN STATE OF WAR

London, England, Aug. 30.—"Germany and England are now in a state of war," said J. A. M. Aikens, Canadian member of parliament from Brandon, Manitoba, who has just returned here from a continental trip. In an interview here today. "The overt blow has not yet been struck," he continued, "but when it is, it will be over in three days. When Canada understands, I believe the Dominion's hearty help will be forthcoming."

PADILLA BOUND OVER TO FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Nemecio Padilla was bound over to the federal grand jury Friday on a charge of violation of the neutrality laws at a preliminary hearing before United States commissioner Oliver.
